GUIDANCE NOTES — remove these notes before sending

Tenant's notice of non-renewal

When to use

- You are the tenant and you will not renew the tenancy contract when it expires.
- Landlords: a landlord who wants the property back at expiry can do so only on the grounds in Art. 25(2), with 12 months' notice — use template T03.

When to send it

- The tenancy law as amended in 2008 does not set a fixed notice period for simply not renewing. The notice period, if any, is the one in your tenancy contract.
- If the tenant stays on after expiry without objection from the landlord, the contract renews for the same term or for one year, whichever is shorter, on the same terms (Art. 6).
- Fill in the notice period and clause number from your own contract. This template does not interpret your contract.

How to deliver it

- The law defines a Notice as a written notification sent through a Notary Public, or delivered by registered mail, by hand, or by any other technological means approved by law (Law 26/2007 Art. 2, as amended by Law 33/2008).
- The law does not list which electronic means count. A Notary Public or registered mail gives the clearest proof of delivery.
- Government notary fee to attest a notice: AED 200 (Executive Council Resolution 72/2025). Other charges may apply.
- Keep a signed copy and the proof of delivery (notary record, registered-mail receipt, or the recipient's signed acknowledgement).

Next steps after sending

- Ask for a joint move-out inspection and use template T08 (move-out checklist) with your T07 move-in checklist.
- The landlord may hold a security deposit and undertakes to refund it, or what remains of it, at expiry (Art. 20).
- At expiry the tenant returns the property in the condition received, except ordinary wear and tear or damage beyond the tenant's control (Art. 21).

What this template does not do

- This template is general information. It does not decide whether the rule applies to your situation, and it does not interpret your tenancy contract. Disputes are decided by the Rental Disputes Center (Decree 26/2013).
