GUIDANCE NOTES — remove these notes before sending

Rent change at renewal — 90-day notice

When to use

- You are the landlord (or the landlord's authorised agent) and you want to change the rent, or another term, when the tenancy renews.
- Rent can be reviewed when the contract is renewed, before it expires (Art. 13, as amended).

When to send it

- The notice must be given at least 90 days before the contract expires, unless the parties agreed otherwise (Art. 14, as amended). If your contract sets a different period, that is a matter for your contract.
- How to count: take the expiry date and count back 90 days. Example: expiry 31 March 2027 → give notice no later than 31 December 2026. Send it earlier than the last day to allow time for delivery.
- Dubai Land Department: an increase is applied only if the landlord gave notice at least 90 days before expiry and the Smart Rent Index confirms the property is eligible. Without the 90-day notice, the increase is not applied.

Check the maximum increase first

- Run the official DLD Rental Index calculator for the unit (Dubai REST app, DLD website, DubaiNow, or the Ejari system) and attach the result.
- Decree 43/2013 caps the increase by how far the current rent is below the average rent of similar units (the percentage is of the current rent):

Current rent compared with the average for similar units	Maximum increase
Up to 10% below	No increase
11% to 20% below	5%
21% to 30% below	10%
31% to 40% below	15%
More than 40% below	20%

- Worked example: current rent AED 100,000; index average AED 120,000. The current rent is 16.7% below the average (20,000 ÷ 120,000), which falls in the 11–20% band, so the maximum is 5% of AED 100,000 = AED 5,000. New rent at most AED 105,000.
- The calculator's result is the figure to rely on; use it rather than your own estimate.

How to deliver it

- The law defines a Notice as a written notification sent through a Notary Public, or delivered by registered mail, by hand, or by any other technological means approved by law (Law 26/2007 Art. 2, as amended by Law 33/2008).
- The law does not list which electronic means count. A Notary Public or registered mail gives the clearest proof of delivery.
- Government notary fee to attest a notice: AED 200 (Executive Council Resolution 72/2025). Other charges may apply.
- Keep a signed copy and the proof of delivery (notary record, registered-mail receipt, or the recipient's signed acknowledgement).

Before you send — check

- Names and unit match the tenancy contract and Ejari.
- The delivery date is at least 90 days before the expiry date.
- The proposed increase is not more than the calculator allows, and the printout is attached.
- Signed by the landlord, or by an agent with written authority.
