Request for repair (maintenance)

When to use

- You are the tenant and something in the property needs repair — for example the air conditioning, a leak, or electrics — and earlier requests have not been acted on.

The rules in plain English

- Unless otherwise agreed, the landlord is responsible during the tenancy for maintenance works and for repairing any defect or damage that may affect the tenant's intended use of the property (Art. 16).
- The landlord is responsible for defects, damage and wear and tear not caused by the tenant's fault (Art. 17).
- The landlord must hand over the property in good condition that allows full use as stated in the contract (Art. 15, as amended).
- The tenant must pay rent on time, maintain the property as an ordinary person would maintain their own, and not carry out changes or maintenance works without the landlord's permission and the required licences (Art. 19).
- 'Unless otherwise agreed' means your contract may move some maintenance to the tenant. Check your own contract; this template does not interpret it.
- The law sets no repair deadline, so the letter asks for a reasonable date.

Attach your evidence

- Dated photos or video, earlier messages or ticket numbers, and any technician's report.

How to deliver it

- The law defines a Notice as a written notification sent through a Notary Public, or delivered by registered mail, by hand, or by any other technological means approved by law (Law 26/2007 Art. 2, as amended by Law 33/2008).
- The law does not list which electronic means count. A Notary Public or registered mail gives the clearest proof of delivery.
- Keep a signed copy and the proof of delivery (notary record, registered-mail receipt, or the recipient's signed acknowledgement).

If it is not resolved

- Either party may take the matter to the Rental Disputes Center (Decree 26/2013 Art. 6).

What this template does not do

- This template is general information. It does not decide whether the rule applies to your situation, and it does not interpret your tenancy contract. Disputes are decided by the Rental Disputes Center (Decree 26/2013).
